Rev. John T. Price will preach at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. There will be no service in this church at night, but the congregation will worship with the Methodist people in Rev. W. E. Doss' farewell sermon.

The quarterly court ordered the public square piked, a part to be done by the pike commission, part by the county and the balance by the town. This was a wise act, as it would have been a mistake to have the square without this most needed improvement.

We are showing the largest line of 9x12 rugs ever shown in this City. Our prices are the very lowest.

WHITSON BROS.

There will be preaching at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and night by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Doss. Communion will be held at the morning services. These will be the last services that Bro. Doss will hold in Cookeville as pastor and will bring to a close his four years service as pastor here. Everybody is invited to attend these meetings.

For Sale—Several small tracts of desirable building lots on the pike near Algood, easy terms, $50 per acre.

S. HAYDEN YOUNG.

The first attraction of the Lyceum Course, the Beulah Buck Concert Co., appeared before a large audience at the college last Monday night and their performance was greatly appreciated. Each member of the quartet is an artist and the company will be heartily welcome by music lovers of Cookeville should they ever come here again. The Lyceum managers are to be congratulated upon their first attraction.
